

Partners

Partners

Regione Toscana

Number three in the ranking of the most R&D investing regions in Italy. Toscana region supports Galileo with two financed projects, which totalled € 3,7 mln.

Wistar Institute

Licensor of TALL 104 technologies to Galileo Research. Established in 1892, Wistar was the first independent medical research facility in the US country. Galileo retains worldwide exclusive rights to develop, use and sell TALL 104 technologies.

Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche (CNR)

The laboratories of Proteomics and Transcriptomics, directed by Dr Lorenzo Citti and Dr Giuseppe Rainaldi respectively, are highly specialised and equipped with the most recent and upgraded analytical systems.

Areta (Gerezano, Italy)

Biotech company, founded in 2000, specialised in process development and GMP production of cell therapeutics and other biologics.

Texcell (Paris, France)

Spin-off of Pasteur Institute that provides viral safety and immunology testing services, according to GMP and GLP standards.

Aclairo (Vienna, VA, USA)

Experienced consultancy group that provides strategic, scientific and regulatory services for pharmaceutical development in the US.

